

What is the book about as a whole?
What is being said in detail, and how?
Is the book true, whole or part?
What of it?

jkideas.com/adler
Mortimer Adler – How To Read A Book

What is the book about as a whole?
What is being said in detail, and how?
Is the book true, whole or part?
What of it?

jkideas.com/adler
Mortimer Adler – How To Read A Book

What is the book about as a whole?
What is being said in detail, and how?
Is the book true, whole or part?
What of it?

jkideas.com/adler
Mortimer Adler – How To Read A Book

What is the book about as a whole?
What is being said in detail, and how?
Is the book true, whole or part?
What of it?

jkideas.com/adler
Mortimer Adler – How To Read A Book

What is the book about as a whole?
What is being said in detail, and how?
Is the book true, whole or part?
What of it?

jkideas.com/adler
Mortimer Adler – How To Read A Book

What is the book about as a whole?
What is being said in detail, and how?
Is the book true, whole or part?
What of it?

jkideas.com/adler
Mortimer Adler – How To Read A Book

What is it about? 1. Classify it 2. What is the whole of it about 3. Enumerate and analyze its major parts (in order and relation) 4. What problem(s) is the author trying to solve
Interpreting its Content 5. Come to terms 6. Grasp the leading propositions 7. Know the author's arguments 8. Determine the solved and unsolved problems (knowingly or not)
Criticizing its Communication of Knowledge 9. Understand, then criticize 10. Disagree civilly 11. Support critical judgments with knowledge, not opinions 12. Show wherein the author is uninformed 13. ...misinformed 14. ...illogical 15. ...where analysis is incomplete

What is it about? 1. Classify it 2. What is the whole of it about 3. Enumerate and analyze its major parts (in order and relation) 4. What problem(s) is the author trying to solve
Interpreting its Content 5. Come to terms 6. Grasp the leading propositions 7. Know the author's arguments 8. Determine the solved and unsolved problems (knowingly or not)
Criticizing its Communication of Knowledge 9. Understand, then criticize 10. Disagree civilly 11. Support critical judgments with knowledge, not opinions 12. Show wherein the author is uninformed 13. ...misinformed 14. ...illogical 15. ...where analysis is incomplete

What is it about? 1. Classify it 2. What is the whole of it about 3. Enumerate and analyze its major parts (in order and relation) 4. What problem(s) is the author trying to solve
Interpreting its Content 5. Come to terms 6. Grasp the leading propositions 7. Know the author's arguments 8. Determine the solved and unsolved problems (knowingly or not)
Criticizing its Communication of Knowledge 9. Understand, then criticize 10. Disagree civilly 11. Support critical judgments with knowledge, not opinions 12. Show wherein the author is uninformed 13. ...misinformed 14. ...illogical 15. ...where analysis is incomplete

What is it about? 1. Classify it 2. What is the whole of it about 3. Enumerate and analyze its major parts (in order and relation) 4. What problem(s) is the author trying to solve
Interpreting its Content 5. Come to terms 6. Grasp the leading propositions 7. Know the author's arguments 8. Determine the solved and unsolved problems (knowingly or not)
Criticizing its Communication of Knowledge 9. Understand, then criticize 10. Disagree civilly 11. Support critical judgments with knowledge, not opinions 12. Show wherein the author is uninformed 13. ...misinformed 14. ...illogical 15. ...where analysis is incomplete

What is it about? 1. Classify it 2. What is the whole of it about 3. Enumerate and analyze its major parts (in order and relation) 4. What problem(s) is the author trying to solve
Interpreting its Content 5. Come to terms 6. Grasp the leading propositions 7. Know the author's arguments 8. Determine the solved and unsolved problems (knowingly or not)
Criticizing its Communication of Knowledge 9. Understand, then criticize 10. Disagree civilly 11. Support critical judgments with knowledge, not opinions 12. Show wherein the author is uninformed 13. ...misinformed 14. ...illogical 15. ...where analysis is incomplete

What is it about? 1. Classify it 2. What is the whole of it about 3. Enumerate and analyze its major parts (in order and relation) 4. What problem(s) is the author trying to solve
Interpreting its Content 5. Come to terms 6. Grasp the leading propositions 7. Know the author's arguments 8. Determine the solved and unsolved problems (knowingly or not)
Criticizing its Communication of Knowledge 9. Understand, then criticize 10. Disagree civilly 11. Support critical judgments with knowledge, not opinions 12. Show wherein the author is uninformed 13. ...misinformed 14. ...illogical 15. ...where analysis is incomplete